Dear Patriots:

The Second Amendment is our defense against tyranny. A person's moral compass can be judged by his support for the right of free people to defend themselves.

That's how I rock. That's how America should roll. That's how Mark DeLuzio rolls. With flying colors, he passes that test, and I enthusiastically endorse him for Congress from Arizona's great Second District.

Mark shares our faith in the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. Next to the Bible, these are the most sacred documents we have been given for our guidance. Our founding principles will guide every decision Mark makes at our nation's Capitol. He is dedicated to constitutional government and personal liberty, and he will fearlessly defend our individual rights, including the Second Amendment.

I am glad that Mark DeLuzio is willing to go to Washington to fight on our behalf. He has the passion and vision to be a warrior for our cause, and he will not waiver. Mark and I know that ultra-liberals who hate America are intentionally tearing down our country, undermining our rights and attacking our heritage.

We are free men and women, and it's time the Washington and bicoastal elites get the message: Don't Tread On Me. Mark DeLuzio will make sure that Nancy Pelosi and her lapdogs in Congress don't get away with curtailing our right to defend ourselves. I urge all Americans who share my passion for freedom to stand with Mark DeLuzio – because as Mark says every day – "America is worth saving!"

God Bless you, and may He protect our nation, before it's too late.

Sincerely,

Ted Nugent
